

Notes and Rules

Every class offered herein, which is covered by the rules and regulations of the current VHSA and BHSA rule book, will be conducted accordingly. VHSA and BHSA membership forms available at secretary's stand. All hunter classes are judged on performance; including way of going, style of jumping and soundness. Manners and Suitability emphasized in Pony and Children's/Adult Amateur Hunter. All Equitation classes are judged on Hands, Seat, Guidance and Control. The judge's decisions are final.

Show management reserves the right to combine cancel or split classes, also to refuse any entry or change officials. Rings will only be held for no longer than 15 minutes due to conflicts. After 15 minutes the gate will shut and the class will begin. The trainer, parent, mount owner, will have to choose which ring they want to participate in. The other ring will go on without them.

Juniors are riders who have not reached age 18 by 12/01/18.

Champion and Reserve Champion points and ribbons awarded for each division. At least 3 participants must be in all classes, except Lead Line, Pre-Short Stirrup, and the Forrest Linton Classics which must have a minimum of 2 eligible entries. No champion ribbons or bonus points if less than 3 entries. Points for the year end award are based on VHSA system.

Year End Division Champion and Reserve Ribbons to be presented at the last show and the exhibitor must be present to claim year end ribbon.

Proof of negative Coggins and a signed release form must be registered with Secretary before mounting. Leave a copy of the Coggins with the secretary.

$15.00 California warm ups are available before riding for any jumping class, course B.

See www.hiddenhavenonline.com for points, links and pre-entry forms.

Proper attire required. All riders must wear ASTM/SEI helmets with chin straps secured when mounted.

Entering the grounds, class or schooling at this Show constitutes an agreement that the exhibitor/spectator will not hold the Management, Staff or Volunteers of Hidden Haven, The VHSA, BHSA or The Meadow Event Park responsible for any loss or injury due to intrinsic dangers of equine activities.

The Equine Activity Liability laws of the State of Virginia, Va. Code Ann. Sec. 3.1-796.130, state among its statutory provisions that, "NOTICE: Intrinsic dangers in equine activities, include (i) the propensity of equines to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm or death to persons on or around them; (ii) the unpredictability of an equine's reaction to such things as sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals; (iii) certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions; (iv) collisions with other animals or objects; and (v) the potential of a participant acting in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the equine or not acting within the participant's ability." No participant nor any participant's parent, guardian, or representative shall have or make any claim against or recover from any equine activity sponsor, equine professional, or any other person for injury, loss, damage, or death of the participant resulting from any of the intrinsic dangers of equine activities.
