STILLMEADOWS CLASSIC – The Stillmeadows Classic is a two round classic, with round B of your division receiving a first round score. The second round will be a handy course and is to be jumped concurrently with your division. The highest cumulative score will be the winner. The Classic is open to all divisions that jump 2' or higher. If you are showing in multiple divisions, please specify when entering which division you will do your classic rounds with. Prize money will be awarded, with the total amount awarded being dependent on the number of entries. If entries warrant, we will split the classic into a morning section (classes held before the schooling break) and an afternoon section (classes held after the schooling break). The Classic will not be open to day-of entries – all entries must be pre-entered. When class numbers are posted on Friday prior to the show, the total prize money being offered will be announced, as well as whether there will be one section or two. At least five entries are required to run the Classic.

**Jog for 2023 – in lieu of an in-hand jog following each division, all riders are asked to conclude their hunter over fences rounds with a trot circle on a loose rein to check for soundness. ****
